American Brain Tumor Association to Host
Annual Path to Progress 5K Run/Walk
Saturday, May 22, 2010 at Soldier Field

Des Plaines, Ill. –The American Brain Tumor Association’s 5th annual Path to Progress 5K Run/Walk will be held at 8:30 a.m. on Saturday, May 22, 2010 at Soldier Field in Chicago. This year’s event includes a new 1 Mile Strut open to any registered participant.

The Path to Progress has steadily grown, attracting nearly 4,500 runners and walkers last year. Proceeds benefit the American Brain Tumor Association’s research funding and patient-family education and support programs.

Registration opens at 6:30 a.m. Path to Progress registration and information are available at www.pathtoprogess.org. Cost: $30 for adults; $28 for CARA members; children ages 4 to 12, $10; children under age 4, free (by May 14, 2010). Early bird registration ($5 discount) ends Jan. 31, 2010.

Path to Progress registration and information are available at www.pathtoprogess.org.

For 37 years, the American Brain Tumor Association (ABTA) has provided critical funding to researchers working toward breakthroughs in brain tumor diagnosis, treatment and care, with the ultimate goal of finding a cure. The ABTA is also the recognized resource for up-to-date information and compassionate support for the brain tumor patients, families and caregivers who are living with this disease. For more information, visit the ABTA Web site at www.abta.org, or call 1-800-886-2282.
